 * The reserve has more navigable river than any other game reserve in South Africa.

The name Kariega (Afrikaans form) derives from the Koi word Qarieha, meaning 'full of Antelope'. 'Qarie' means Antelope and 'ha' means full. The Afrikaans speaking community, having a hard time pronouncing the Click word 'Q' in Qarieha, spelled and pronounced it as Kariega, and 'rha' being pronounced as 'ga'.

Kasouga is a declared Heritage Site. Part of it is still the original 1825 Bovey farm, split up in 1880 and considered the oldest resort in the Eastern Cape. The James Ford Hall, built in 1925 is still used for town meetings. Taking a vintage photo here is a must. The name Kasouga is derived from 'kheekhoen' and means 'place of many leopards'. The river name 'Kosuka' is a Xhosa adaptation of the word and has the same meaning.

Two cannons found on the beach have given the name to this quite village. One of them might have come from the São João Baptista wreck of 1622. Due to prevailing winds you'll find one of the biggest shifting sand dune fields in the southern hemisphere just west of Cannon Rocks. Cannon Rocks is renowned for Kiteboarding and fishing.
